Somali-born supermodel Iman has strutted down international catwalks and traveled worldwide for countless magazine shoots. All that globetrotting inspired her latest venture, a new bedding line with rich colors and patterns sparked by her three favorite destinations: Hollywood, Ibiza and Morocco. We asked this fashion icon and mom to 13-year-old Alexandria for tips on how to bring home a touch of getaway glamour.

The necessities in the showroom from her new collection.

White slipcovers perk up furniture and make a great blank canvas for decorative pillows.

Sea- and sky-blue bed linens soothe me right to sleep. IMAN Home Ibiza Azul Sham, Mediterranean Knot and Paradise Del Sol Decorative Pillows and San Antonio Starlights Sheets and Shams Set, bedbathbeyond.com, $35 to $150

Add a little fancy to everyday family dinners with colorful cloth napkins. 20 by 20 Dinner Napkins in Arabesque Aqua, henhouselinens.com, $42/set of 4

Whether single stems or a full bouquet, peonies are my go-to spring pick-me-up.

Scalamandre's bold Zebra print wallpaper reminds me of Africa. Sprunge on a roll for a powder room or closet. Or let this vase lend an exotic air to a table. Scalamandre Zebra's 8" Red Bud Vase by Lenox, lenox.com, $50

I love the dramatic shadows cast by Moroccan lanterns on dinners—especially in a long hallway. Moroccan Cylinder Pendant Light, shadesoflight.com, $119

Nothing says fresh and crisp like pairing indigo with white. Sherwin-Williams Indigo (SW 6523) and Marshmallow (SW 7001)
